Red Wine

Appellation/Denominación de Origen
Ribera del Duero

Vintage 2016

Variety
100% Tempranillo (Tinto fino)

Vinyard
On a special plot in Tubilla del Lago (Tubilla comes from de Latin word "Tuillan" which means tuff, limestone rock) at 920 metre altitude is a plantation of 25 year old vines with unique characteristics. The plot is on clayey stoney soil with very little vegetation depth and layers of rocks the roots work their way through. A privileged location overlooking the Gromejón river with a climatic influence from the Sierra de Cervera.

Winemaking
Manual harvest into boxes. Respectful of the environment at all stages in the process, from sustainable viticultural techniques to the final stages of production in the cellar. The wine has very low sulphite content.

Aging
7months in 300 litre French oak barrels.

Bottling
Not cold stabilized.

Production
25,000 bottles 0.75 l and 540 bottles 1.50 l

Alcohol
13.85% Vol.

Total Acidity
5,19 g/l

TASTING NOTES

Cherry red color with violet reflections. Intensely aromatic with aromas of red and black fruit, liquorice hints typical of the tempranillo variety. Integrated with mineral notes and toffee caramel.

Medium bodied with sweet tannins. Long and persistent with an agreeable finish of black fruit. A typical offering from the Ribera del Duero, with a unique personality.
